Personal Edu-Festo

Abstract:

I created a video because I thought that utilizing my creative side would be the most authentic way for me to present my manifesto. My goal was to incorporate footage I had taken while in high-school while simultaneously integrating stereotypical scenes from a teacher-centered classroom. I hope that the video footage, paired with my voice over created a sense of contrast - between what my ideals are and the stereotypical middle-class 1950's classroom. I hope my personal voice and antidotes work together to more thoroughly contextualize my framework and thoughts on being a teacher.
